The Agricultural Chemicals Security Credit has expired, but is opportunity still knocking?

The Agricultural Chemicals Security Credit was applicable to eligible expenditures incurred after May 22, 2008 and before January 1, 2013. If you did not file for these valuable credits, you may have missed a significant opportunity. For more information about this credit, see this article in BNA Daily Tax Report.

We have been working with companies to amend previously filed tax returns in order to claim this credit for eligible expenditures incurred within that timeframe. We can conduct an analysis to determine if your company would qualify for this credit. Yair Holtzman, Partner and Practice Leader of Anchin's Research & Development Tax Credits Group can also produce a cost-benefit analysis to see if it is worthwhile to amend your previously filed tax return(s) in order to claim the credit.

For more information on Research & Development Tax Credits, please feel free to reach out directly to Yair at 914.860.5599 or via e-mail him at yair.holtzman@anchin.com.
